Q1) Will there be multiple awardees of this contract or will there be only one agency awarded?

A1) While there are no prohibition to award the contract to multiple awardees, consideration will be given to all respondents relative to the content and strength of their proposals and how they will address the needs of the Out-of-School Youth population in Solano County. The WDB anticipates awarding one contract.

Q2) Will there be special consideration for minority lead agencies when deciding on who will be awarded the contract?

A2) Consideration will be given to minority lead agencies, as is standard in our procurement process, however, there are no point value for such in the RFP rating criteria.

Q3) In the budget narrative, how detailed must the agency be when describing staffing budget allocations? Should formulas be included?

A3) The budget narrative should be detailed enough so that the reviewers can understand how you determined your line item cost. Formulas for staffing would be helpful to include.
